To the Readers.

Gentlemen,

YOu are here presented with the Library of Edw. Wray of Barlings in Lincolnshire, a Gent. well known for his skill in Arts and Languages, and his singular judgment in the choice of his Library, as well as curiosity of their Binding, which being perused, will manifest him both a Gent. and a Scholar, and one that hath gathered such Curiosities in his Travels, as are not frequently to be found, whether in Diuinity, History, Mathematicks, Architecture, Prospective, Roman Antiquities, &c. both in Latin, Italian, & French, as well as English, as will more manifestly appear in viewing the Catalogue it self. Wherefore I shall only acquaint you, that this Sale will begin the 20th day of June next, at the Pelican in Little-Britain, London, at the usual hours of 9 in the Morning, & 2 in the Afternoon, & so to continue daily till all are sold. The Books may be seen any time of the day the week before the Sale begins. The Conditions follow.

I. That he who bids most is the Buyer; but if any difference ariseth, the same Book or Books shall be again exposed to Sale.

II. That the Books in this Catalogue (not otherwise expressed) are, for ought we know, perfect; but if any of them do appear to be otherwise, before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his choice whether he will take them or leave them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the Pelican in Litle Britain, London; were, upon payment thereof, the Book or Books bought shall be ready to be delivered, within the Month aforesaid.
